About CEL...

What is subsidized child care?
Subsidized child care is assistance to low-income families to cover part or all their child care cost, depending on their financial need.

What is CEL?

The San Diego County Centralized Eligibility List (CEL) gives families access to many subsidized child care programs through a single application. Currently, the CEL serves several thousand families seeking subsidized child care and has over 54 participating child care programs.

How can CEL help me?

With CEL, you can easily gain access to many subsidized child care programs through one application. CEL saves you the time of applying at each agency individually and improves your chances of obtaining subsidized child care at the location of your choice.

Is CEL a waiting list?

No, CEL is an eligibility list. An eligibility list determines which families should be served first based on factors such as income, family size and other needs, when a space becomes available. CEL is not administered on a first-come, first-serve basis. The amount of time that a family has been waiting does not determine who will be served first.

Can I find out my family's ranking on the eligibility list?

No, Child care subsidies are based on priorities determined by each subsidy program. For this reason, a family's ranking can change at any given time, depending on the needs of the families participating in CEL.

To qualify...

Who is eligible for CEL?
Families must be low-income and meet at least one of the following needs*:

- Working
- Looking for work
- Attending school or in training
- Homeless
- Medically incapacitated
- Receiving Child Protective Services (CPS)
- Seeking part-day educational preschool

To find out if you qualify, contact any participating agency or program.
