

Hours of Operation

6:30 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

The AM-PM Programs are conveniently located on site at 13 of the elementary schools in Vista Unified School District.

We provide programs before and after school, during breaks and summer to students enrolled in the elementary schools of Vista Unified School District.

Each afternoon the children are provided with a nutritional snack

We place a high emphasis on completing homework. We offer a quiet homework period Monday - Thursday followed by outside time and enrichment activities.

Quality Staff

Our professional staff provides a safe and enjoyable environment where the children can have fun, learn and make new friendships.

All staff hold certificates in First Aid and CPR. Each has completed a minimum of 12 units in early childhood education.

Care is calculated by multiplying the number of days in the month times the daily rate.

A sibling discount applies when 5 days AM & PM care is contracted for each child.

There is a $20.00 enrollment fee.

Fees are based on 2017-18 school hours.

Program Collaboration

We have unified the AM-PM and ASES programs at Hannalei, Casita Center, Foothill Oak and Temple Heights schools. Our programs are unique at these schools because we offer our program not only through parent pay and outside funding agencies, but also through our ASES grant. ASES grant applications can be picked up at the school office.
